WONDERS OF THE WORLD WEBSITE

ABSTRACT:

Wonders of the World has various lists compiled from antiquity to the present day to catalogue the world's most spectacular natural features and human-built structures. The Oldest Seven Wonders of the World was an Ancient list of this type, documenting classical antiquity's most remarkable artificial creations. It was based on guidebooks popular among Hellenic sightseers and as such, only includes works located around the Mediterranean rim and the ancient Near East.

Greeks believed it represented perfection and plenty. Seven was chosen because it reflected the number of planets known in ancient times (five), plus the Sun and Moon. These wonders, which span different times and civilizations, captivate the world with their historical significance and awe-inspiring beauty. They reflect the enduring human spirit in creating monumental achievements that continue to inspire wonder and admiration.

List of seven wonders of the world of some of the most impressive buildings, including the

- 1)Taj Mahal in Agra, India,
- 2)The Great Wall of China in Beijing,
- 3)The Christ the Redeemer Statue in Rio de Janeiro,
- 4)Machu Picchu in Peru,
- 5)Chichen Itza in Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula,
- 6)The Roman Colosseum in Rome,
- 7)Petra (Jordan).

Objectives:

The main objective of wonders of the world website is to build a website using web technologies.

To show the works of art and architecture known as the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World serve as a testament to the ingenuity, imagination and sheer hard work of which human beings are capable.

Tools Used:

- 1.HTML(HyperText Markup Language)
2. CSS (Cascading Style Sheets)
- 3.Web Browsers: Any web browser will work effectively.
- 4.Libre Office Writer

OUR WEBSITE:

Informational websites are those sites that are created in order to provide a customized and branded resource for potential and active customers, members, investors, and so forth. These websites are usually content and design-driven. A great informational website can act as an excellent sales tool for a company.

Accuracy and Credibility: Information presented should be accurate, trustworthy, and backed by reliable sources.

Depth and Breadth: Content should offer substantial information on the chosen topic, going beyond basic surface-level facts.

•Clarity and Organization:Information should be presented clearly and concisely,using accessible language and logical organization.

•Regular Updates:The website should be updated regularly with fresh content to stay relevant and engaging.

Database Connectivity:

In PHP, make a database connection file.

Make a new PHP file called db_connection.php and keep it safe. What's the point of creating a fresh database connection file? Because if you've generated numerous files in which you wish to insert or select data from databases, you won't have to write the database connection code every time. Simply include it at the start of your code using PHP's custom function include (include 'connection.php') then call and utilise its function. It is particularly useful when changing your project location from one PC to another when you need to modify the values on a single file, and the changes are immediately applied to all the other files. Insert code into your db_connection file.

DATABASE CONNECTION:

<?php
    $connection=mysqli_connect("localhost","root","password","Details");
    if($connection)
    {
        echo " Successfull";
    else{
        echo "Error:".mysqli_error($connection);
    }
?>
```

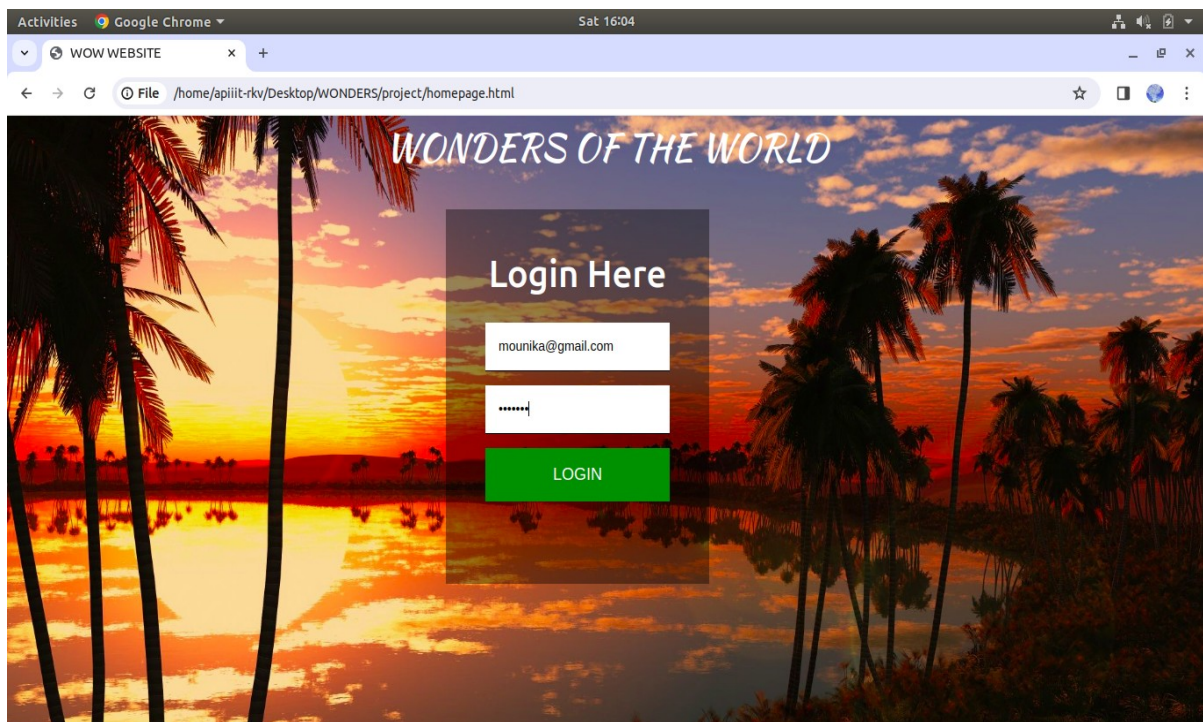

```
<?php
    $connection=mysqli_connect("localhost","root","password","mail");
    if($connection)
    {
        echo " Successfull";
    }
```

else{
    echo "Error:".mysqli_error($connection);
}
```

Taj Mahal

- Height: 73 meters
- Timings: 8 am to 5 pm; During Full Moon: 8.30 pm to 12.30 am.
- Best Time To Visit: November to March
- Location: Dharmapuri, Forest Colony, Tajganj, Agra, Uttar Pradesh
- Nearby Attractions: Tomb of I'timad-ud-Daulah, Mehtab Bagh, Jama Mosque, Agra Fort, and more.

The Taj Mahal is considered to be the greatest architectural achievement in the whole range of Indo-Islamic architecture. Its recognised architectonic beauty has a rhythmic combination of solids and voids, concave and convex and light shadow; such as arches and domes further increases the aesthetic aspect. Not a piece of architecture, as other buildings are, but the proud passions of an emperor's love wrought in living stones.

Built by the famous Mughal Emperor, Shah Jahan for its favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal, the iconic structure of TajMahal, is the pride of India and more importantly, an epitome of love. Built as early as in the 16th century, TajMahal is the crown of India which is constructed purely of Ivory-white marble and is best witnessed during sunrise.

- Nearby Attractions: Great Sphinx of Giza, Giza Plateau, Grand Egyptian Museum, and more.
- Other Things To Do In Giza: Sightseeing, sound and light show in Giza, camel safari, quad biking, horsebackriding, and more

Of all the ancient seven wonders of the world, the Great Pyramid of Giza is the one and only wonder that has survived to stand tall through thick and thin. Constructed between the period of 2584 BC & 2561 BC, it is the largest of all three pyramids with a base of about 230.4 metres, and a height of 146.5 metres.

The Great Pyramid of Giza is the largest Egyptian pyramid and the tomb of Fourth Dynasty pharaoh Khufu. Built in the early 26th century BC during a period of around 27 years, the pyramid is the oldest of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, and the only one to remain largely intact.

Although many theories persist as to the purpose of the pyramid, the most widely accepted understanding is that it was constructed as a tomb for king KHUFU. Although many theories persist as to the purpose of the pyramid, the most widely accepted understanding is that it was constructed as a tomb for the king.

The oldest and largest of the three pyramids at Giza, known as the Great Pyramid, is the only surviving structure out of the famed Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. It was built for Pharaoh Khufu (Cheops, in Greek), Sneider's successor and the second of the eight kings of the fourth dynasty.

Stunning as it looks, Great Wall of China is one of the those 7 wonders of the world that need no introduction. Encompassing of defensive fortifications that are a perfect blend of bricks, rammed earth, wood, stones, and other substances, the Great Wall of China was built to protect the Chinese region from invasions of empires during 7th century BC.

he Great Wall of China became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in December 1987. The wall is the longest man made structure in the world, with a total length of about 13170.7 mi or 21196.18 km. Made over the course of hundreds of years, the wall was built by over 6 different Chinese dynasties, and is over 2,300 years old. Around 220 B.C.E., Qin Shi Huang, also called the First Emperor, united China. He masterminded the process of uniting the existing walls into one. At that time, rammed earth and wood made up most of the wall. The Great Wall of China was built as a military defensive line to defend the invasions from some northern nomadic nations. Apart from the function of defense, the wall also boosted the economy, as well as promoted the culture exchange and national integration of different nations at its two sides.

Located in the southwestern desert of Jordan, Petra is the world-famous archaeological site that once served as the Nabatean Kingdom's capital. Boasting of its one of a kind pink sandstone cliffs out of which the tombs and temples are sculpted, Al Khazneh is the most famous temple of all. Featuring a facade known as the Treasury, Petra reflects the authentic Greek architecture that attracts millions of travelers across the world. Image result for information about petra in jordan Famous for its rock-cut architecture and water conduit system, Petra is also called the "Rose City" because of the colour of the stone from which it is carved. It has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985. UNESCO has described Petra as "one of the most precious cultural properties of man's cultural heritage". Petra was built by the Nabateans in what is now southern Jordan, while the civilization was amassing great wealth trading with its Greek and Persian contemporaries around 150BC.

Petra is an ancient city that lies in present-day Jordan and dates back to the fourth century B.C. Ruins of the once-great metropolis and trading center now serve as an important archeologic site and tourist attraction. The ancient city of Petra in Jordan became one of the 7 New Wonders of the World when it was chosen in 2007 by a vote of 100 million people. The city's carved rose-red sandstone rock facades, tombs, and temples became known around the world with its appearance in Indiana Jones and The Last Crusade in 1989.

- Other Things To Do In Rome:Explore the nightlife at Piazza Navona, admire Michelangelo's paintings at Sistine Chapel, explore the Palatine Hill, and more.

One of the major tourist attractions of Rome, the Colosseum is indeed one of the iconic 7 wonders of the world. Constructed mainly of sand and concrete, Colosseum is the largest surviving amphitheatre in the world. Built during the time between 70 AD to 72 AD by the famous Emperor Vespasian, Colosseum is much famed as the Flavian Amphitheatre that continues to charm the travellers today. The Colosseum, also named the Flavian Amphitheater, is a large amphitheater in Rome. It was built during the reign of the Flavian emperors as a gift to the Roman people. Construction of the Colosseum began sometime between A.D. 70 and 72 under the emperor Vespasian.

As one of the few mostly intact structures from the Roman Empire, the Colosseum stands today as a monument to ancient Rome's architectural and engineering prowess. It is also a major source of tourism revenue for the Italian government. The Colosseum is generally regarded by Christians as a site of the martyrdom of large numbers of believers during the persecution of Christians in the Roman Empire, as evidenced by Church history and tradition. On the other hand, other scholars believe that the majority of martyrdoms may have occurred at other venues within the city of Rome, rather than at the Colosseum, citing a lack of still-intact physical evidence or historical records. These scholars assert that "some Christians were executed as common criminals in the Colosseum—their crime being refusal to reverence the Roman gods", but most Christian martyrs of the early Church were executed for their faith at the Circus Maximus. According to Irenaeus (died about 202), Ignatius of Antioch was fed to the lions in Rome around 107 A.D and although Irenaeus says nothing about this happening at the Colosseum, tradition ascribes it to that place.

SUMMARY:

The seven Wonders of the World represent a diverse and awe-inspiring collection of human achievements and natural marvels. From the ancient wonders like the Great Pyramid of Giza, symbolizing architectural brilliance, to the modern wonders such as the Panama Canal, showcasing engineering ingenuity, each site holds a unique place in human history. These wonders serve as testaments to human creativity, determination, and the ability to overcome formidable challenges. As global icons, they captivate the imagination and stand as enduring symbols of human achievement across different eras and civilizations. The seven Wonders collectively weave a narrative of human endeavor, innovation, and the enduring quest to push the boundaries of what is possible, leaving an indelible mark on the world's cultural and historical landscape.
